Dear Mr O'Brien,

RESPONSE TO ASX PRICE QUERY

We refer to your letter dated 3rd January 2006 concerning recent movements in the price of listed securities in Jumbo Corporation Limited and the volumes traded ("price query").

In answer to the questions put to the Company in the price query, we respond as follows:

1. The Company is not aware of any information concerning it that has not been announced to the market which, if known, could be an explanation for recent trading in the securities of the Company.
2. Not Applicable.
3. A possible explanation for the recent price change and the increase in volume of securities of the Company traded could be the recent articles in the press speculating on the performance of small capitalized companies such as Jumbo. On the 27th December 2005, The Courier Mail published an article entitled "Online sector gears up for second dot-coming" and made mention of Jumbo Corporation Limited as having the second highest return on investment for the past 12 months.
4. The Company is in compliance with the ASX Listing Rules and in particular, Listing Rule 3.1

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully,

Mike Veverka

Dear Mr Veverka

Jumbo Corporation Limited (the "Company")RE: PRICE QUERY

We have noted a change in the price of the Company's securities from 6.7 cents on 29 December 2005 to a high of 8.3 cents today. We have also noted an increase in the volume of trading in the securities over this period.

Please note, if the answer to question 1 is yes and an announcement cannot be made immediately, you need to contact us to discuss this and you need to consider a trading halt (see below).

3. Is there any other explanation that the Company may have for the price change and increase in volume in the securities of the Company?

Under listing rule 18.7A, a copy of this query and your response will be released to the market, so your response should be in a suitable form and separately address each of the questions asked. If you have any queries or concerns, please contact me immediately.

Listing rule 3.1

Listing rule 3.1 requires an entity to give ASX immediately any information concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the entity's securities. The exceptions to this requirement are set out in listing rule 3.1A.

In responding to this letter you should consult listing rule 3.1 and Guidance Note 8 – Continuous Disclosure: listing rule 3.1.

If the information requested by this letter is information required to be given to ASX under listing rule 3.1 your obligation is to disclose the information immediately.

Your responsibility under listing rule 3.1 is not confined to, or necessarily satisfied by, answering the questions set out in this letter.

Trading halt

If you are unable to respond by the time requested, or if the answer to question 1 is yes and an announcement cannot be made immediately, you should consider a request for a trading halt in the Company's securities. As set out in listing rule 17.1 and Guidance Note 16 – Trading Halts we may grant a trading halt at your request. We may require the request to be in writing. We are not required to act on your request. You must tell us each of the following.

- The reasons for the trading halt.
- How long you want the trading halt to last.
- The event you expect to happen that will end the trading halt.
- That you are not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted.
- Any other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt, or that we ask for.

The trading halt cannot extend past the commencement of normal trading on the second day after the day on which it is granted. If a trading halt is requested and granted and you are still unable to reply to this letter before the commencement of trading, suspension from quotation would normally be imposed by us from the commencement of trading if not previously requested by you. The same applies if you have requested a trading halt because you are unable to release information to the market, and are still unable to do so before the commencement of trading.

If you have any queries regarding any of the above, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Simon O'Brien
